in this volume on the history of the european nobility in the modern era the boundary between the early modern and real modern periods around 1800 is deliberately crossed by centring on the nobility the authors undertake a new exploration of the continuities and ruptures in european history in the three thematic areas of law politics and aesthetics the noble knights utilisation of the early modern courts in the holy roman empire is considered along with the social and political identity of the english nobility in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the contributions make clear the virtuosity with which the nobility met the challenges of their time and how they managed to be simultaneously contemporary and retain a specific aristocratic character the book examines military paintings in france in the 1850s and 1860s when the genre experienced a new lease of life it recreates the paintings art historical historical and social context and considers the explosion of military subjects in their own right rather than as a consequence of war reporting the paintings entertainment value effectively communicated political agendas catering to the emerging phenomenon of mass spectatorship and giving rise to innovative compositions the book also looks at the other side of the artistic spectrum proposing that smaller formats adapted the sentimental techniques of military memoirs to focus on the soldiers experiences of warfare and to elicit a critique of war
